FLOWER-white, tubular, long stalked (panicles), extremely fragrant.
FRUIT: drupe ¼” long, red becoming black.
STEM: prominent raised lenticels.

LEAVES-evergreen, simple, opposite, elliptic to 6” long, leathery, may be toothed at apex or may be entire, base of leaf is obtuse, bacon aroma.

FORM: evergreen, large erect shrub or tree, multi-branched up to 20’.